7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The best medicine for an aching heart or anxious mind is being surrounded by the love and support of family. In the face of crisis, important decisions, difficult problems or serious illness, those who care the most for us can offer words of comfort, hope and direction as we set aside our fears and try to move forward. There is no substitute for the solid ground of love in the stormy seas of life.

Everyone comes to a crossroads in life. Some choices and decisions are life-changing and fear can hold us back. Faith is challenged by doubt, or love is challenged by rejection and we look for some sign that we are on the right road. The risks are real, but we need to choose. It is then that we can most help each other find what we need to step forward, to choose wisely and know that we are not alone. A sounding board, a voice of reason, and a promise of prayer give us more than enough to make the journey that lies ahead. We go with God and we go with one another.

A Surrender Prayer
God sometimes it's hard to surrender my life to You. I make the mistake of thinking my plans are better than Yours. I know Your purpose for me is far greater than I can imagine, so I want to release all control to You. I invite You into my decision-making. Please inspire every move I make. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Lent is just around the corner. The time is now to start preparing for an amazing Lent. Lent is an opportunity to spend time with Jesus in the desert as He prepared for His suffering, death and Resurrection. The purpose for us is to help us grow in our faith and become spiritually stronger. In preparing for Lent, we as Catholics prepare three ways, through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. So, in the time leading up to Lent, you can ask the questions. Which shall I do? Should I do all of them or just One? Do what I did last year or try something different this year? Many questions can be asked before Lent as you try to figure out what the best sacrifice is for you to make. To be continued…

May God's peace and blessings be with you all,

Saint Polycarp

CIRCA 69-156
FEAST DAY — FEBRUARY 23

This disciple of St. John the Apostle was appointed bishop of Smyrna (now Izmir, Turkey), perhaps by John. Representing the Asia Minor churches, he went to Rome about 155 to discuss when to celebrate Easter. The result was that the Eastern and Western churches continued to calculate the date as before. Shortly after his return, Polycarp was arrested and urged to renounce God. He refused and was sentenced to be burned alive. When the flames did not harm him, he was killed by a sword, as recounted in an early Christian document.

Worcester Catholic Men's Conference:

The Worcester Catholic Men's Conference will be held Saturday, April 5 at the DCU Convention Center.

Registration begins at 7:30AM with the first speaker beginning at 9:00AM. Men of all ages are invited to hear inspiring talks from Fr. Donald Callaway, MIC; Retired US Navy SEAL, Sam Blair; Fr. Derek Mobilio; Dr. Edward Sri; and Mr. Artie Boyle. We will have an all day adoration chapel; dozens of priests will be available for confessions at the lunch break; and over 50 relevant vendors will be present. The closing Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Robert McManus at 4:00PM.

Tickets (includes lunch) are $50 for adults through March 26; $60 thereafter and at the door. Student tickets are always just $30. Tickets and further information are available at: www.catholicmenworc.com
